

LTE Mobile Video Transmission System

Overview

LTE Mobile Video Transmission System is an adequate system for high quality video/voice data communication. And the system makes it possible to increase efficiency and prompt action for field staff. This system transmits can be used mobile terminals, such as smart phone, for multi-way communication without delay.

Features

- ▣ Infinite extension of the surveillance range with the mobile terminal
- ▣ Real-time video transmission via on-site people's smartphones
- ▣ Server recording & record management
- ▣ Identifying the exact site location using GPS
- ▣ Share multiparty video between site + situation room + remote place workers

Configuration and Applications

Installation scheme

